

Fee Schedule – July 2026

Your appointments involve more than just the time spent face-to-face with your clinician. Before your initial appointment, our clinicians spend time getting to know your needs, and planning the session. Afterwards, they spend time reviewing the information and assessment results, setting meaningful goals, preparing for therapy, communicating with relevant parties, and planning future sessions. This additional clinical time helps us provide personalised and effective therapy and is included in our fees under non-client facing time.
